Risk of Margin Trading

Margin trading involves the potential for profit as well as the risk of loss. The leveraged nature means that any movement will have appropriate proportional effect on your investment. This may vastly exceed the amount of money you commit to any trade or transaction. Movements in the price of foreign exchange and commodities are influenced by a wide range of factors, many of which are unpredictable. GFA Capital Markets LTD cannot guarantee a maximum loss that you may suffer.

Internet Trading Risks

There are risks associated with utilizing an internet-based trading system. These include but not limited to: the failure of hardware, software, internet connection and any force majeure (e.g. extraordinary weather condition or other act of God; war; labour dispute; communications or power failure, etc). Since GFA Capital Markets LTD does not control signal power, its reception or routing via Internet, configuration of your equipment or reliability of its connection, therefore we cannot be responsible for communication failures, distortions or delays when trading via the Internet. We will attempt to minimize the possibility of system failure. Please use telephone trading if necessary.
